WILSON TO WASHINGTON

PROBABLY FORECASTS SOME IMPORTANT ACTION ON MEXICAN QUESTION.

Washington, July 16.—Ambassador Henry Lane Wilson at Mexico City has been summoned to Washington for an immediate conference with President Wilson on the Mexican situation. This action is taken as forecasting some important action on the administration's attitude toward the Huerta government.

The announcement was made by secretary Bryan. Immediately after a conference at the White House with the president, the secretary issued this statement:

"Ambassador Wilson has been asked to come to Washington to confer with the president personally on the situation in Mexico. The American Embassy will be left in charge of the First Secretary, Mr. O'Shaughnessy."

Ambassador Wilson will hurry north either on the battleship Michigan or Louisiana from Vera Cruz, if any delay would be caused by waiting for a commercial steamer. Officially he will be on his way to Washington.

If you Value Your Sight, as An Expert Optician I have spent 20 years preparing myself to perfect the refraction of the eye. My modern equipment, backed by this long experience in your Guarantee of Satisfaction. A. D. COOK, Ramsey's Drug Store, Ada, Ok.

Officials here believe that the almost total interruption of railroad traffic between Mexico City and the United States will force the Ambassador to make his trip by water. He is not expected here before July 25 at the earliest.

Secretary Bryan positively declined to add any information to his brief announcement of Ambassador Wilson's call to Washington. However, it is assumed that the administration desires to learn from the ambassador directly what influences actuated the foreign diplomatic representatives in Mexico when they jointly agreed to address their governments with what amounted to a formal complaint against the attitude of the United States in its relations with the Huerta regime.

President Wilson has kept an open mind on the subject and is thought to feel himself bound to adhere to the policy he announced early in his administration of lending moral encouragement only to such governments in Latin-America as were founded upon constitutional law and practice. However, it is understood that he is ready to give due weight to any representations Ambassador Wilson may care to make.

Senator Fall has informally notified the Foreign Relations Committee that he intends to ask the senate to discharge it from further consideration of this bill to repeal the neutrality statute of 1912 under which the Huerta government now is importing munitions of war, while they are denied the constitutionalists. He will ask the senate to pass it.

HARRIS CASE NEARING END

EVIDENCE NEARLY ALL IN—COUNSEL MAY ARGUE THIS EVENING.

The Harris case is nearing an end and it is probable that the argument will begin late this afternoon or in the evening. Several witnesses testified late Wednesday afternoon and this morning and the defense rested shortly before noon. At the afternoon session the state put on its witnesses in rebuttal.

At the morning session Harris was put on the stand. As he did not testify at the preliminary hearing and habeas corpus trial his testimony was awaited with interest.

He told of the threats a number of people had told him Braddy had made and of his movements just prior to the tragedy. He also denied partly pulling a gun when he passed Braddy sometime previous to the killing, producing a tube flash light which he said was in his pocket at the time and which he had his hand on. Was in R. C. Roland's office on North Townsend shortly before killing.

As we need the room for our fall goods which will begin to arrive, we decided to give the following discounts for cash:

- 25 per cent on Refrigerators
- 15 per cent on Porch Furniture, Hammocks and Swings.
- 10 per cent on Rugs and everything else in the Furniture line, except Cane Chairs.

ing of Braddy. Walked up Main street to pool hall. Passed Braddy and Walter Chapman at Big 4 barber shop.

Arriving at pool hall first went to rear of room, said a few words to Sam McDaniel and both went to the front. McDaniel was writing behind cigar show case, Harris leaning on it with face turned eastward. Did not see Braddy enter. First intimation he had of this presence heard Braddy say: "Harris, g—d— you, have you got your gun?" Looked up and saw him a foot or two away with gun pointing at Harris. Harris instantly grabbed gun with both hands, one around cylinder and other around barrel.

With the assistance of A. D. Tanner witness re-enacted the scuffle with Braddy over possession of gun. They lurched against show case and Harris turned gun in westerly direction just as it went off. Braddy then turned muzzle towards Harris and second shot was fired, the flash of the powder scorching his coat. (The coat was later put in evidence) Both men then sank to their knees in the contest over the gun, Harris twisting muzzle toward Braddy. Third shot fired while in that position. Both then struggled to their feet, Harris being a little quicker in regaining his footing. Gun twisted over Braddy's head and fourth shot fired Braddy fell. Witness walked around him and then went to door and surrendered to Deputy Sheriff Duncan. Hands badly powder burned and were hurting. Braddy was trying all the time to get muzzle towards Harris. Witness testified that Braddy had hold of butt of gun and trigger throughout fight. His own hands never had hold of trigger or hammer and never cocked gun. Braddy was never on back of witness with arms around him holding wrists of Harris. Braddy a strong man physically, weighed something like 190 pounds. On cross examination Harris denied that there was any plot to kill Braddy. The gun used was not his own but the one Braddy drew on him.

The state's rebuttal testimony taken up to 2 o'clock was as follows:

Cal Bollen: Saw Braddy at Gregg & Chapman's barn between 5 and 6 o'clock on day of killing; coat blew back; never saw a gun nor print of any; talked like he might have been drinking.

A. Wormington: Never saw a quart bottle in Braddy's coat pocket when he stopped at Cassie Coyle's; never had occasion to find out.

S. K. Smith: Saw Charley Braddy at Cassie Coyle's day of killing; went into other room; no conversation between Mrs. Coyle and Braddy about gun; Braddy appeared sober; did not know what he was doing in kitchen; never saw any quart bottle.

Ray Scott: Never told Ollie Lancaster that Braddy and his crowd were going to get Harris out to stock yard and kill him.

Wick Adair: Knows Henry Dumas when sees him; was with Braddy and Colvin when made trip to country; never saw Dumas; never saw sign of gun on Braddy; Braddy drinking choc beer; not drunk; got back about 6 o'clock; shot about hour later; admitted friendliness to prosecution in case.

Louis Sarrett: Was in pool hall when Braddy was killed; was at third table from front; heard scuffle; both men had hold of gun; looked like Harris pushed gun from Braddy before first shot fired; ran out of back door; never saw one behind the other with arms around him holding wrists.

Sam McDaniel: Was in pool hall when Braddy was killed; Harris had been in about five minutes before trouble started; witness behind cigar case; Harris on outside of case near south end; witness was addressing a letter and heard some one talking; never heard what was said; Harris facing north right arm on show case; show case gave lurch; when witness looked up Harris and Braddy were scuffling; Braddy at north of Harris; were backing north; first shot when they were near north end of show case; second shot fired when they were near door; witness then left through back door; couldn't tell who had hold of butt of gun; came back to front when trouble was over; Harris' left hand powder burned; had Colts gun in right hand; slinging left hand; didn't see any powder smoke on Braddy's hands; found bullet hole in west wall and one in floor near front wall; bullet in wall ranged up; never saw Braddy at Harris' back with arms around him holding wrists.

Following is part of testimony taken Wednesday afternoon.

OLD ADOPTION OF BOOKS WILL STAND

Oklahoma City, July 17.—The 1908 adoptions of school books continue in effect and nothing further will be done towards carrying out the new adoption program until after the supreme court has passed on the appeal from Judge Carney's injunction, which is scheduled for the early part of September, according to the action of the state board of education, Wednesday.

The only action taken by the board with reference to the school book controversy, it was stated, was the adoption of a motion deferring further consideration of new adoptions until the next meeting of the board, which will be held July 31. When the board meets on that date, it is said, similar action will be taken by again postponing consideration until the following meeting, which probably will not be held until after the supreme court has handed down its opinion on the appeal.

The effect of this action, it is explained although not stated directly under the agreement in the W. H. Wheeler company's case, will be to continue in effect the 1908 adoptions and defer any action toward new adoptions until after the supreme court has handed down its decision.

The purpose of adjourning consideration of the text book question from time to time admittedly is to validate the advertising and other work of the board with reference to the proposed new adoptions, in the event the supreme court holds it can proceed with other adoptions.

The plan of passing a resolution declaring this to be the attitude of the board on the question, which originally was proposed, was abandoned in view of the suggestion that such action might tend to destroy the work so far done by the board.

The board, it was stated, will not make a recommendation at this time to Governor Cruce for the appointment of a successor to A. A. Stewart, resigned, as superintendent of the institute for the deaf at Sulphur. It is the desire of the board, it is said, to wait until superintendent Wilson and F. J. Wilcox, who are now out of the city, can be present. Six applicants for the place were examined and one of these probably will be recommended to the governor, who has the power to fill the vacancy.

Dr. F. B. Fite of Muskogee was appointed to represent the board at the International Congress of School Hygiene to be held at Buffalo the latter part of July.

The board adjourned to meet again July 31.

Sapulpa Gambling House Held Up.

Sapulpa, Okla., July 16.—Three masked men held up two dozen players in a Dewey avenue gambling house here last night, and escaped with $100 after a running fight with police.

"Up against the wall, quick," a gruff voice commanded.

The crowd of spectators surrounding the tables, and the players, glanced about to find three revolvers leveled toward them. All members of the crowd complied with alacrity.

One robber scooped up the "pot" and the three bandits backed out of the room.

Five shots were sent after the robbers, but they escaped through the railroad yards.

Last Saturday the same gambling house was held up by one masked man, single handed, and $600 taken.

WILL TAXPAYERS CUT OFF NOSE TO SPITE FACE?

Will a man cut off his nose to spite his face? Such will indeed be the case if the voters of Oklahoma turn down the amendment to Art. IX, Sec. 9, of the state constitution on which will be voted on at the special election August 5. The legislature has thrown ample protection around the rights of the people in the terms of the amendment and with the safeguard of the initiative and referendum there is little or no chance for monkey business. In this county the burden of taxation will be materially lightened when the O. C. is absorbed by a larger system, like the Santa Fe, and placed on a better basis, and the passenger rate will be reduced from 3c to 2c as on the main line of the Santa Fe and other big systems. The big roads don't care a whoop whether the amendment is passed or not; in fact, their influence seems to be largely against it. They have the business of the state fairly well monopolized as it is and are not worrying about an opportunity to build new mileage.

However, there is a notable exception to this rule. The Rock Island long ago surveyed out a route from Asher to Wapanucka and as the Asher branch is a losing proposition under present conditions it will undoubtedly be extended through the county if the opportunity is given. The tonnage from the OK cement plant is a drawing card and the new territory that will be opened will mean a large increase in traffic for the road. It will pay thousands of dollars in taxes into the treasury of Pontotoc county, thereby helping the taxpayers. Vote for the amendment and pay no heed to the vaporings of peanut politicians who use the argument against the amendment as a means of advancing their own interests in the political field.

INTERESTING LETTER FROM MRS. KRIEGER

Deming, New Mexico.
Evening News, Ada, Okla.

We left Ada June 30th, went to Ft. Worth, Tex., and visited our esteemed friend at the Meadows home, were royally entertained and taken all over the city. On July 2nd started for El Paso, Tex., arrived there Thursday, July 3rd. Great preparations were being made for a battle at Juarez, Mex. Street cars were stopped at the bridge by American consul and mayor and sent back into El Paso and all American citizens warned to leave the town. Sunday was moving day. The battle was expected today at day break but up to 6:30 when we left El Paso not a gun was fired. We stood on a ten story building and watched with interest the federal dig trenches. The distance was only one and a half miles. The Rio Grande is about as large as Sandy, but it is the line between the two cities. I never saw more interest manifested over any thing like that battle-to-be has caused. We saw companies of U. S. soldiers patrolling the river and guarding the light plant, as Juarez is lighted by El Paso. We saw the blue coated federal patrolling the town; it was a solemn sight to see.

On to Deming, N. M., July 7th; got dinner and took a ten mile trip around Deming. The Chamber of Commerce sent the automobile to show us what they had. It is a wild desert country all around, but where they have those flowing wells, garden truck is fine. First place we visited was the Chinese garden where every thing was growing by irrigation, beans, beats, onions, peas, cabbage, apples, plums, in fact every thing Oklahoma raises. This makes his second crop. Alfalfa does fine here.

In fact I couldn't begin to tell all I have seen since leaving Ada. We start 9:30 July 8th for Phoenix, Ariz., F. C. is getting fat. Both have stood the trip fine. KITTIE KRIEGER.

The News Has a Visitor.

This morning the editor and manager of the News were delighted beyond measure when their old time partner and friend, Tom B. Lusk of Italy, Tex., dropped in for a few days visit. It was under Mr. Lusk in the office of the Italy News-Herald that both received what knowledge of the business they had before coming to Ada, the manager having set his first stick of type in that shop and working there for some twelve years all told. The editor also learned a few things in the office during his residence at Italy and for the last six or eight months before coming to Ada, the three were partners.

Mr. Lusk is one of the best known editors in Texas, and served four years as secretary of the state press association. Two years ago he moved to Lindsay, California, but Texas had such a strong hold on him that he recently returned to his old stomping ground. After seven years of urging he finally managed to get off to Ada and see what a good town really looks like, and from what he has seen of the place he thinks he found the trip worth making.

Attention Boys and Girls.

The Civic and Cemetery association will give 10 cents a pint for dead flies delivered to Mesdames Ed Gwin or Dr. Ross from now until August 1st. A prize will also be given to any one person bringing the greatest quantity during this time. 85-3t

The ladies of the North Ada Methodist church will serve home-made cake and ice cream on the church lawn Friday night. Everybody come. 87-2d

Penalty Valid, Says Court.

Oklahoma City, Ok., July 16.—The 18 per cent penalty for nonpayment of taxes, not being interest, is not in conflict with Art. IV, Secs. 2 and 3, of the Constitution fixing rates of interest. The penalty is valid and enforceable. This was held by the supreme court in an opinion delivered by Justice Turner in the case of J. F. Shultz against Fred Ritterbusch, appealed from Logan county, and on rehearing.

Other opinions by Justice Turner were: G. N. Kneeland et al vs. Wayne County National Bank, from Alfalfa county, reversed. Justice Kane dissenting; J. W. Johnson vs. A. L. Carrico, from Oklahoma, affirmed.

Pershing's Distinguished Services.

Washington, D. C., July 17.—Major General Bell, commanding the Philippine department, warmly praises Brigadier General John J. Pershing for the manner in which he conducted his campaign to disarm the Moros. It is not the first time that Gen. Pershing has been "mentioned in dispatches," and when the history of the Philippines comes to be written it is probable that to the fighter from Missouri will be given the credit for doing the biggest share of the "rough work" incident to the pacification of the islands.

General Pershing has been fighting in the Philippines the greater part of the past ten years. In 1906 he was singled out by President Roosevelt in one of his messages to Congress for his distinguished services in his fights against the Moros in the Lake Llanos country. There, his senior officer being incapacitated, the command of a battalion devolved upon him. Captain Pershing was away from civilization and almost cut off from communication with the outside world. For seven months he kept open his base of operations, supplied his own subsistence, and, with his men, fought every day and part of the night. He started at the lower end of the lake and fought clear around Gen. MacArthur, then in command in the Philippines, recommended him for promotion to brigadier general as the only recognition commensurate with his actual services. Thereupon the president jumped Captain Pershing over the heads of 82 officers of higher rank and made him a brigadier general in the regular army. Except in the case of General Funston, who was made a brigadier from the volunteers after his capture of Aguinaldo, there is no other instance upon record where bravery and efficient service have been so promptly and so extensively rewarded.

The latest dispatches from the Philippines indicate that the recent fighting has been as severe as any that marked the early career of General Pershing in the islands. For days the American troops have been fighting in the mountain fastness with savages sometimes numbering between 5,000 and 10,000. Hand to hand combats have been frequent, in which not a savage surrendered, and the encounters were ended only by escape or death.

Convention of Colorado Stockmen.

Glenwood Springs, Colo., July 17.—Colorado stockmen rounded up here in force today for the mid-summer convention of their state association. The gathering will last three days and will be devoted to the discussion of the forestry question, the Underwood tariff bill and its probable effects on the stock growing industry, and a number of other matters of common interest to the stockmen.

Three good pictures at the Airdome this evening. "Hooked" is a tempest of laughter all the way through. "The Pillar of Pearl" is a good frontier drama. "The Devil's Hiding Place" features Marguerita Fisher and the Rex company.

This evening the De Sota will present the famous Broncho headliner: The Transgressor. It is a story of Puritan life, a tragedy on the order of Hawthorne's Scarlet Letter. At the end the real culprit meets the death he so richly deserves. Another count of the contest this evening.

Denver Prepares for Knight's Templar

Denver, Colo., July 17.—Three weeks hence Denver will be the Mecca of tens of thousands of the most prominent and representative citizens of the United States. From every part of the continent, from far-away Maine and Florida, from California and Oregon and from all the commonwealths between, the representatives of the Knights Templar will gather for their thirty-second triennial convocation.

For more than a year the local committee of reception and entertainment, composed of the most prominent and active templars in this jurisdiction, has been preparing for the advent of the mighty hosts that will sojourn in this city during the second week of August. Today announcement was made of the practical completion of every detail of the convocation program. As in the past, the big features of the week will be the great street parade and the competitive drills. Dinners, receptions and balls will figure in the entertainment program, along with numerous sightseeing trips to the many points of scenic interest in the vicinity of Denver.

Jealous Man's Queer Freak.

A man named Bours has been arrested at Venice, Cal., charged with shaving the head of his bride in a fit of jealous rage to make her look unattractive in the eyes of other men. The bride, who is only seventeen, and much younger than her husband, complained that he overpowered her, clipped her tresses close, and then applied lather and razor until her head "looked like a billiard ball."

Makes Them Feel Safer.

"Any girl," says a lady lecturer, "can marry any man she wants to if she holds his image in her mind." All the same, most girls consider it a bigger asset to hold his letters in her pocket.

Good Description.

Little Emily's mother had gone shopping. Upon returning she brought home to Emily a pair of pink socks fashionable for smart children in summer. That evening some ladies called upon her mother. Emily left the room, and a short while after the three-year-old returned with her socks on. "Look!" she exclaimed to the visitors, "mother bought me a pair of long-sock stockings."

May Be Something in Dreams.

Belief in the prophetic power of dreams has run round a rosy. Men formerly thought dreams foretold future events, dreams gave good advice for the regulation of one's future conduct, dreams told where to find lost articles. Then as we grew more sophisticated we regarded dream omens as mere superstition. Lately some of the closest investigators of dreams have begun to switch to the former opinion.

BRONCHO HEADLINER "THE TRANSGRESSOR"

A story of Puritan village life. The son of a minister wins a girl away from her devoted fisherman. Orphaned, she is adopted by the minister, and when her child is born, refuses to reveal the father's name. She is cast out by the minister and scorned by the people. When her child is dying, the fisherman comes back to her with unfaltering love, and the minister's son meets a tragic death at the hands of the Indians.

P. A. NORRIS FILLING

SILLO WITH CORN

The News reporter inspected P. A. Norris' silo Wednesday afternoon and found it about half filled with silage. The work will be completed in a day or two.

As stated sometime ago the 18 acres of corn in the field north of the new Norris house was just about as fine a prospect as could be found anywhere, although after the dry weather set in it would have been better if it had been thinner. Mr. Norris says he took a gambler's chance on plenty of rain and partly lost out. However, considerable corn was raised in spite of the dry weather. Mr. Norris is farming it strictly according to government demonstration methods. The corn is now being cut with a corn binder and hauled to the silo where stalk and all is ground very fine and blown into the silo. It is packed down and ready for feeding at any time. However, there is so much of it that it is doubtful if the silo with its 200-ton capacity will be large enough to hold it. Estimating this feed at the very low figure of $5 per ton, the total value of the field of 18 acres is $1,000, whereas, if it had not been left alone all that would have been got out of it would have been the ear corn.

Mr. Norris is so elated over his experiment that he plans to break the ground as soon as the corn is cut and plant the field in peas. If that crop makes anything he will build another silo and fill it with peas and kafir corn.

FRANCIS

Lane & Lane sold their restaurant on north side of main street to Floyd Norval. Mr. Norval is no wengaged in the cold drink and short order business.

The Bell people have gone out of the Richey Cafe and that business is closed and will stand closed indefinitely.

On account of the drouth the corn crop will be cut about two thirds in this part of the county, though the farmers have good oats and millet to help them in feed stuff.

Fire broke out in the top of the Harvey House last Tuesday and destroyed a large section of the roof and had it not been for the prompt action of the fire boys the whole building with the depot would have been destroyed by the flame. The damage is estimated at about $50.00.

Rev. Thomas Nelson sold his crop, stock and 160 acres of land two miles south of town to a Mr. Halmey. Mr. Nelson will in a few days move his family to Iowa.

B. L. Stephens and family are spending part of last week and this week in Sulphur visiting friends, seeing the sights and drinking water.

MAY REFER ANTI-

GAMBLING LAW

Oklahoma City, July 17.—That efforts are being made to refer the two anti-gambling bills passed by the last legislature at a special election, or to arrange it so they must go over until the general election next year, is the information that comes from a reliable source. However, those naturally interested in securing the voice of the people on the measures, or in having their enforcement delayed as long as possible, deny any knowledge of the reported activity in the matter.

It is said to be the intention to secure names on petitions that have already been printed and ready for circulation and that no attempt will be made to include the two measures in the election to be held in August. It is understood to be the purpose to wait until the anti-gambling measures are about to become effective the first of October, and then file them in the office of the secretary of state. This will act as a stay to the enforcement of the laws until an election may be had. In case Governor Cruce would not call a special election then they could not be voted upon until the general election in 1914.

The two measures involved prohibit betting on horse races either at the race track or in pool halls, and the regular anti-gambling act, which aims at gambling in general with dice, cards, roulette wheels, etc.

It is understood that ever since the legislature passed the two laws interests involved have been active in having them referred to the people with the hope of defeating the legislative efforts.

Oldest Playhouse to Close.

Philadelphia, Pa., July 17.—Patrons of the theatre and members of the theatrical profession everywhere will learn with regret that the famous Walnut Street theater in this city is about to pass into history. The theater has been refused a license for failing to comply with the new safety standard fixed by the city authorities. As compliance with the requirements would mean a complete rebuilding of the theatre it is likely that the house will never reopen again.

The Walnut Street theater is America's oldest playhouse. It was built in 1808 and during practically its entire career of more than a century it has been devoted to first-class attractions. It is said that every American player of prominence, with the exception of some of the younger actors and actresses of the present day, has been seen upon its stage. The house is part of the estate of J. Sleeper Clark, the famous comedian, who owned and conducted it during the latter years of his life. Clark was an uncle of Edwin Booth.

ARTESIAN WATER FOUND IN OIL WELL.

R. P. Ford and C. H. Stone, were visitors to the oil well between Abilene and Stoneburg Wednesday. Mr. Ford reports that at a depth of 400 feet as fine a flow of artesian water as was ever seen anywhere has been struck and a large stream is flowing from it. He says that it could be made to irrigate a good sized tract of land and is enthusiastic over a plan of that kind.

WHAT COMMITTEES ARE DOING

Committee on the business section is very much in evidence today and feel very much encouraged with the ready co-operation on the part of the business houses in cleaning up their places. In fact, in an hour after the committee started out you could have followed them by the work of cleaning up that they had started.

Committee on alleys met and selected two more members to aid in the inspecting and reporting the alleys that need attention, they have also called the attention of a great many property owners to the condition of the alley back of them, and are always met with an enthusiasm on the part of the property owners that was far more encouraging than they had ever expected.

Committee on collection of sewage and disposal of sewage and garbage, met this morning and heard reports from the various members. They would like for those who are cleaning up their premises to advise them when to send wagon to haul off the garbage.

An Astor Anniversary.

New York, July 17.—One hundred and fifty years ago today there was born at Waldorf, near Heidelberg, Germany, the son of a lowly butcher, who lived to stand before kings, and to acquire the largest fortune ever accumulated by a single individual in America up to his time. The butcher's son was John Jacob Astor, the founder of the Astor family in America. He crossed the Atlantic at the age of 20 and from the day of his landing he was an American. At first he acted as an agent for a London firm that manufactured musical instruments and he became the first dealer in musical instruments in the United States. By degrees he worked into the trade with furs, serving apprenticeship with a Quaker in the business. Then began his difficult and trying journeys to buy furs, and his conflicts with the strongly established Hudson's Bay company. He extended his trade to the western coast of America and sent his ships to all parts of the world. He invested his profits in national securities and in land in New York city and its immediate vicinity. His investments brought him large returns. His fortune at his death in 1848 was $20,000,000 gained largely through trust and faith in his adopted country and in the future greatness of New York city.
